

— GEORGE — HOEHMANN

Town of Clarkstown Supervisor

George Hoehmann, a lifelong resident of Clarkstown, has served as Clarkstown Supervisor since January 2016. Prior to that, George spent 21 years helping those with disabilities, including serving as Executive Director of Rockland Independent Living Center, a Rockland County based non-profit, now known as BRIDGES.

“As Supervisor, I have fought hard to put the interests of Clarkstown residents above all others. With your support, we will continue to protect taxpayers and fight to preserve Clarkstown for future generations.”
